

NEMO Science Museum

At NEMO Science Museum you can discover how science and technology make everyday things special. Get to work and discover all kinds of things: how we make tap water potable, what causes lightning and what you will look like in twenty years' time. From the colours of the rainbow to the crackle when you take off your sweater: after visiting NEMO, nothing will ever be quite the same again.

Accessibility

NEMO is situated at Oosterdok in the centre of Amsterdam. For more information about accessibility, go to nemosciencemuseum.nl/accessibility.
